TEACHERS' TOOLKIT ONLINE FORUM: LAUNCHES 15 SEPTEMBER 2006

WE FEEL IT IS TIME FOR YOU TO SHARE YOUR THOUGHTS AND IDEAS WITH LIKE-MINDED PEOPLE VIA THE TEACHERS' TOOLKIT ONLINE FORUM.

The Teachers' Toolkit Forum

One look at the Teachers' Toolkit Forum will convince you of the usefulness of our forum and how well it facilitates participation in discussion and debate on issues in education. Even if you know little about computers, you will be surprised how easy it is to use the Teachers' Toolkit Forum. Try it—you'll like it!

What is a forum?

A forum is an online resource that enables participants with common interests to freely exchange ideas, thoughts and comments and to promote debate in a safe secure environment. Participants can also post questions, answers or comments on any issues that arise. A forum can also act as an 'electronic notice board' for the posting of messages of general relevance.

Discussion Items

There will be an array of discussion areas from which you can select and enter, along with items where you will find additional support being offered by teaching colleagues.

NB: Guidelines to help you make the most of the resource will be provided. The forum will be monitored regularly and any irrelevant or inappropriate messages will be removed by the moderator.

Visit the Teachers' Toolkit website from 15 September (www.teacherstoolkit.net.au) where you will be able to register and get involved!
